The Challenge:

HMS Design and their client are in the process of updating the client's brand of ethnic hair care products and understanding the end client's brand equity. And — they only had 1 week to get the needed insights!

Project Objectives:

- Obtain consumer perception on three new positioning statements focusing on hair wellness
- Understanding client's brand equity in the natural hair space
- To get positioning insights quickly so that package design for a key retailer meeting could commence right away

Key Insights:

- A lead positioning was identified to be utilized in the new packaging design & for broader marketing purposes going forward
- The brand has strong permission from consumers to play in the natural ingredients & natural hair space
- Opportunity remains to educate consumers on the brand benefits
